Humanities Honors

Suggested Readings:

- My Word!: Plagiarism and College Culture
  The problem of plagiarism seen through the lens of an anthropologist.
  Susan D. Blum

- The Chrysanthemum and the Sword
  A recognized classic of cultural anthropology, this book explores the political, religious, and economic life of Japan from the seventh century through the mid-twentieth, as well as personal family life.
  Ruth Benedict

- Coming of Age in Samoa: A Psychological Study of Primitive Youth for Western Civilization
  Margaret Mead accomplished this remarkable feat of ethnography not once but several times, beginning with Coming of Age in Samoa. It details her historic journey to American Samoa, taken where she was just twenty-three, where she did her first fieldwork.
  Margaret Mead

  For readers who really want to challenge themselves:

  - The Inheritors
    Eight Neanderthals encounter another race of beings like themselves, yet strangely different. This new race, Homo sapiens, fascinating in their skills and sophistication, terrifying in their cruelty, sense of guilt, and incipient corruption, spell doom for the more gentle folk whose world they will inherit.
    William Golding

  - Flatland: A Romance of Many Dimensions
    This masterpiece of science (and mathematical) fiction is a delightfully unique and highly entertaining satire. It describes the journeys of A. Square, a mathematician and resident of the two-dimensional Flatland.
    Edwin A. Abbott

  - The Song of Roland (Kindle Edition available)
    by Anonymous (Author), Dorothy L. Sayers (Translator)
    The classical epic, glorifying the heroism of a Frankish Knight in the 778 battle between Charlemagne’s Franks and the Moors.
